Papers are sorted by categories. For papers that have more than one version (typically, journal version and conference proceedings), the different versions are combined into one entry in the list. STOC is shorthand for “Annual ACM Symposium on the Theory of Computing”. FOCS is shorthand for “Symposium on Foundations of Computer Science”.

Journal publications

Preliminary version appeared in Proc. of 25th STOC, 1993, pp. 728-737.

Preliminary version appeared as “A Randomized Time-Space Tradeoff of O(mR) for USTCON”, in Proc. of 34th FOCS, 1993, 238-246.

   A preliminary version, that includes also a part that is not included in the journal version, appeared in Proc. of 26th STOC, 1994, 172-183.

A preliminary version (of part of the paper) appeared in Proc. of 33rd STOC, 2001, 433–442.

Preliminary version in Proc. of 32nd STOC, 2000, 134–143.

This is part of a paper titled “Approximating the minimum bisection size”, that appeared in Proc. of 32nd STOC, 2000, 530–536.

   Preliminary version in SODA 2006.

   Preliminary version in Proc of SWAT 2008, 319–330. (Best paper award.)

   Preliminary version in RANDOM 2006.

   Preliminary version in APPROX 2009.

   Preliminary version in FOCS 2011.

   Preliminary version in ICALP 2011.

Proceedings of refereed conferences

One page abstract appears also in Proc. of 17th Annual IEEE Conference on Computational Complexity, page 5, 2002.

Invited talks in conferences.

Part of an invited talk given in a conference celebrating the 60th birthday of Laci Lovasz.

Unrefereed technical reports.

