

Homework #6-midterm

Sent by email on May 23 morning, due by May 24 morning.

Please do not scroll down to the next page!
You should not read the exam till the time you are ready to start!

Instructions:

This is your practice for the final.

No collaboration from peers, the web or any other material except your own notes.

You should first read all the material covered in the class and the tutorials till Monday, 13/5/19, and summarise the main ideas and tools we learned. You will be able to use these note in the final as well.

You should be able to finish this midterm assignment in less than 2 hours.

Please write the time you started and the time you finished (without the Bonus).
Clarification: you are allowed to take more than 2 hours if you need it, this will just give us an indication on how long things really take.
