There is a small grocery store in the Institute, located near the (northern) entrance at the Bloch Gate (which is closer to the train station). Its hours are Sunday - Thursday, from 07:00 - 19:00, and Fridays, from 07:00 - 14:00.

There is also a supermarket which offers also many imported goods called Tiv Tam, 2 Oppenheimer St. (down the stairs in the mall by the Rehovot train station).

Post-office

The closest post office is located in 70 Derech Yavne. Derech Yavne is the street located right in front of the Institute's main gate. The post office is on the first block on your left hand side if you're facing the street with your back to the Weizmann gate. Phone numbers: 08-9460771, 08-9463044.

ATM Machines

Foreign ATM cards are accepted by the ATM machine located in the lobby of the Leumi Bank, corner of Herzl and Weizmann Streets, and by the ATM machine located in the lobby of the Dweck Campus Center building (aka Jubilee Plaza, number 31 on the map).

Taxi

Ordinary taxis are flagged down on the street or called on the phone. If you call, the dispatcher asks both for your address and your destination. If he quotes a fare over the phone it is binding. Within cities, fares are usually according to the meter ("l'fi mon'eh"). Between cities, a schedule of rates fixed by the Ministry of Transport applies. Surcharges apply for driving between 21:30 and 06:00, as well as for fares on Shabbat and Jewish holidays. The following are phone numbers of dependable Rehovot cab companies:

"HaNassi", 195 Herzl (near the Institute), (08) 946-2626

"Gordon", 12 Bilu (at Rehovot shopping mall), (08) 949-3333

"Rehovot", 1 Ya'aqov (corner Herzl, in front of SuperPharm), (08) 936-3333

"HaNegev", 30 Teller (opposite Ya'aqov), (08) 946-6666

"Remez", 8 Rozhanski, (08) 945-5555

On meter fares, no tip is expected. On flat-rate fares (usually intercity rides), a small tip is generally appreciated.

Train

Trains have become a popular and convenient way of getting around, and the cabins are modern and comfortable. Israel Railways has an efficient, easy-to-use web site, in English, with current schedules, prices, etc.

The Rehovot station is located within easy walking distance (to the north) of the Institute. Most of the trains that travel en route to Tel Aviv (and Tel Aviv University) continue on to Haifa, Nahariya and many other stops along the way. The Information and Customer Service Call Center is available at 03-6117000 or the speed dial number *5700.

Shared Taxis (Sherut)

These are taxis (usually minibuses) that follow the exact route of busy bus lines and pick up passengers along the way, usually at regular bus stops. As a rule, they charge about the same as the bus fare (or slightly less). Usually they only leave the station of initial departure when they are full, or have given up hope of picking up more passengers. They are most active around the hours that the lines are otherwise busiest (e.g. commuter hours). You can take them from the bus stop by the main gate but since signs are in Hebrew you will need to ask the driver if he's going to Tel Aviv.
